A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events, outbreaks of disease or pandemics (such as COVID-19), and the ability of manager to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

June 8, 2026

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook in the year ended March 31, 2026 (the "period"). If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period since inception.

In this report, "IGIM" and "the Manager" refer to I.G. Investment Management, Ltd., the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Please read A Note on Forward-Looking Statements on the first page of this document.

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund aims to provide long-term capital growth by investing primarily in equity securities from emerging markets throughout the world.

Risk

The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's most recent Simplified Prospectus.

The Fund is suitable for long-term investors looking for capital growth who intend to hold this investment as one component of a diversified investment portfolio and who have a medium to high tolerance for risk.

The Fund is currently available for investment only by other IG Wealth Management Funds.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance in the current and previous periods is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. The following comparison to market indices is intended to help investors understand the Fund's performance relative to the general performance of the markets. However, the Fund's mandate may be different from that of the indices shown.

For the year ended March 31, 2026, the Series P securities returned 35.5% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the Fund). In comparison, the MSCI Emerging Markets (Net) Index returned 25.4%. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in the index returns.

Emerging markets advanced over the period, supported by a weaker U.S. dollar and improving fundamentals. South Korea led performance on surging semiconductor demand related to artificial intelligence ("AI") and strong foreign investment inflows. Taiwan benefited from robust technology exports and its strategic role in the AI supply chain. Chinese equities lagged other emerging markets, with policy support and resilient exports offset by domestic economic growth challenges. Indian equities declined amid slowing corporate earnings growth, elevated share valuations, currency weakness and continued foreign outflows.

Within the MSCI Emerging Markets (Net) Index, South Korea, Peru and Colombia were the best-performing markets in Canadian dollar terms, while India, Indonesia and the Philippines were the weakest. The information technology, materials and industrials sectors were the strongest performers, while consumer discretionary, real estate and consumer staples were the weakest.

The Fund outperformed the index, with stock selection in South Korea and Taiwan and underweight exposure to China contributing to performance. In sector terms, stock selection in financials and consumer discretionary, an overweight position and stock selection in information technology, and an underweight position and stock selection in energy contributed to performance. Holdings in the United States and stock selection in South Africa detracted from performance, as did underweight exposure to the materials sector and stock selection in the industrials sector.

During the period there were significant shifts in the Fund's positioning in India, South Korea, Taiwan and the information technology sector. These changes were driven by a mix of active management decisions and market movements.

Net Assets

The Fund's net assets increased by 28.4% during the period to $527.1 million. This change was composed primarily of $142.1 million in net income (including any interest and/or dividend income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, and a decrease of $25.4 million due to net securityholder activity (including sales, redemptions and cash distributions).

Fees and Expenses

The management expense ratio ("MER") during the year ended March 31, 2026, was generally similar to the MER for the year ended March 31, 2025. Total expenses paid vary from period to period mainly as a result of changes in average assets. No management fee or administration fee, other than certain specific fund costs, is charged to the Fund. The MERs are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

The portfolio management team believes a weakening U.S. dollar against many other currencies, ongoing deficit spending in major economies and a multi-year artificial intelligence and infrastructure capital expenditure cycle have created a constructive backdrop for emerging markets, while underpinning corporate earnings growth. However, in the team's view the Middle East conflict has complicated the near-term outlook for these markets, affecting countries that are dependent on energy imports, such as India. Most emerging market economies aside from China continue to experience an inflationary boom, which the team expects to favour sectors and industries in which emerging markets have a significant presence, including industrials, defence and commodities.

Other Developments

Effective July 1, 2025, the Distributors, Investors Group Financial Services Inc. and Investors Group Securities Inc., merged into one single, dually registered dealer, IG Wealth Management Inc. (in Quebec, IG Wealth Management Inc., a firm in financial planning) that operates as an investment dealer with a dedicated mutual fund division.

Related Party Transactions

I.G. Investment Management, Ltd. is the Manager, Trustee and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund. The Fund is only available for purchase by other IG Wealth Management Funds and is not available for purchase by retail investors. The Manager, Portfolio Advisor and Trustee are, indirectly, wholly owned subsidiaries of IGM Financial Inc.

Certain other investment funds, distributed by IG Wealth Management, and other qualified investors may invest in Series P of this Fund. As at March 31, 2026, this series comprised 100.0% of the Fund's net assets. The Manager relied on standing instructions approved by the IG Wealth Management Funds Independent Review Committee for the execution of all such transactions, which are based on the net asset value per security determined in accordance with the stated policies of the Fund on each transaction day. Investments by other investment funds in the Fund increase the risk of large redemption or purchase orders, which could result in larger than normal cash positions in the Fund for short periods of time. This could have an impact on the Fund's operations. However, the Manager uses various strategies to minimize the potential dilutive impact associated with large cash positions. These strategies may include transferring securities in-kind where possible, utilizing ETFs to maintain market exposure in lieu of cash and spreading transactions in smaller increments over a period of time.

Past Performance

The Fund's performance information assumes all distributions made by the Fund in the periods presented are reinvested in additional securities of the relevant series of the Fund. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns or performance. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar chart presents the performance of Series P of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The chart shows, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Fund Formation and Series Information.

Annual Compound Returns

The following table compares the historical annual compound total returns for each series of the Fund with the relevant index or indices shown below for each of the periods ended March 31, 2026. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in these performance figures.

All index returns are calculated in Canadian dollars on a total return basis, meaning that all dividend payments, interest income accruals and interest payments are reinvested.

Percentage Return:	1 Yr	3 Yr	5 Yr	10 Yr	Since Inception
Series P	35.5	n/a	n/a	n/a	20.3
MSCI Emerging Markets (Net) Index	25.4	n/a	n/a	n/a	16.8

The MSCI Emerging Markets (Net) Index represents large- and mid-cap equity performance across 24 emerging markets. Net total returns are calculated after the deduction of withholding tax from the foreign income and dividends of its constituents.

(1) These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences, if any, can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.

(3) Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

RATIOS AND SUPPLEMENTAL DATA

Portfolio turnover rate (%)[4]	50.36	50.36	n/a
Net asset value per security ($)	15.57	12.07	10.78

(1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.

(2) Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, income taxes and withholding taxes, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, except as noted. In the period a series is established, the MER is annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. Where the Fund directly invests in securities of another fund (including exchange-traded funds or "ETFs"), the MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment. Any income distributions received from ETFs managed by affiliates of the Manager, with the intention of offsetting fees paid within those ETFs but which are not considered to be duplicative fees under regulatory requirements, are treated as waived expenses for MER purposes. The Manager may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.

(3) The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of another fund (including ETFs), the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.

Management Fees

The Fund is only available for purchase by other IG Wealth Management Funds and is not available for purchase by retail investors. In order to avoid duplication of fees in the other IG Wealth Management Funds, the Fund does not pay a management fee.

Fund Formation and Series Information

The Fund may have undergone a number of changes, such as a reorganization or a change in manager, mandate or name. A history of the major changes affecting the Fund in the last 10 years can be found in the Fund's Annual Information Form.

Date of Formation: March 17, 2023

The Fund may issue an unlimited number of securities of each series. The number of issued and outstanding securities of each series is disclosed under Financial Highlights.

Series P securities are offered exclusively to mutual funds managed by IGIM (or its affiliates) and certain institutional investors in connection with fund-of-fund arrangements.
