Management Discussion of Fund Performance

November 12, 2024

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook in the six-month period ended September 30, 2024 (the "period"). If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period since inception.

In this report, "IGIM" and "the Manager" refer to I.G. Investment Management, Ltd., the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Please read A Note on Forward-Looking Statements on the first page of this document.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of all series in the current and previous periods is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. Performance will vary by series primarily because fees and expenses differ between series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Fund Formation and Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series. The following comparison to market indices is intended to help investors understand the Fund's performance relative to the general performance of the markets. However, the Fund's mandate may be different from that of the indices shown.

For the six-month period ended September 30, 2024, the Series F securities returned 8.0% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the Fund). In comparison, the Fund's broad-based indices, the S&P/TSX Composite Index and S&P/TSX SmallCap Index, returned 10.0% and 9.4%, respectively. The Fund's narrow index, the S&P/TSX Completion Index, returned 11.2%. Given the Fund's mandate, the narrow index has been included as a more meaningful comparison.

Canadian equities rose over the period despite volatility, with the financials sector and mining stocks leading market performance. The Bank of Canada signalled easing inflation by cutting its policy rate in June 2024 – it was the first among G7 central banks to begin doing so – and again in July and September. The central bank's more accommodative policy stance came as the Canadian economy was less robust than the U.S. economy and as Canadian homeowners faced higher debt burdens.

Within the S&P/TSX Composite Index, materials, utilities and financials were the best-performing sectors, while health care, industrials and energy were the weakest.

Canadian small-capitalization stocks generally performed in line with large-capitalization stocks.

Within the S&P/TSX SmallCap Index, consumer staples, materials and communication services were the best-performing sectors, while energy, utilities and consumer discretionary were the weakest.

Canadian mid-capitalization stocks generally performed in line with large-capitalization stocks. Within the S&P/TSX Completion Index, consumer staples, materials and communication services were the best-performing sectors, while health care, energy and consumer discretionary were the weakest.

The Fund underperformed the S&P/TSX Composite Index, with overweight exposure to the industrials sector and stock selection in the energy sector detracting from performance. Stock selection in the consumer discretionary and materials sectors contributed to performance relative to the S&P/TSX Composite Index.

The Fund underperformed the S&P/TSX SmallCap Index, with an overweight position and stock selection in the industrials sector and underweight exposure to the materials sector detracting from performance. Stock selection in the financials and consumer discretionary sectors contributed to performance relative to the S&P/TSX SmallCap Index.

The Fund underperformed the S&P/TSX Completion Index, with overweight exposure to the industrials sector and underweight exposure to the materials sector detracting from performance. Stock selection in the consumer discretionary sector and underweight exposure to the energy sector contributed to performance relative to the S&P/TSX Completion Index.

Net Assets

The Fund's net assets decreased by 0.6% during the period to $288.4 million. This change was composed primarily of $21.2 million in net income (including any interest and/or dividend income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, and a decrease of $22.8 million due to net securityholder activity (including sales, redemptions and cash distributions).

Fees and Expenses

The annualized management expense ratio ("MER") for each series during the period ended September 30, 2024, was generally similar to the MER for the year ended March 31, 2024. Total expenses paid vary from period to period mainly as a result of changes in average assets in each series. The MERs for all series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report.

Recent Developments

The portfolio management team believes that equity market valuations at period-end reflected investor optimism about an economic "soft landing" rather than recession, as well as a lower interest rate environment. The team expects the Bank of Canada's more accommodative monetary policy to encourage increased asset investment and provide relief from higher borrowing costs, particularly among consumers. The resulting boost to economic growth would be positive for corporate profits.

However, the team expects market volatility to persist in response to a softening labour market and heightened geopolitical tensions. The team remains cautiously optimistic about the long-term prospects for equities and opportunistically makes changes to the portfolio as ongoing volatility affects the risk-reward profiles of sectors and stocks.

Other Developments

Effective May 3, 2024, Series A was redesignated as Series B; and effective May 10, 2024, Series J DSC was redesignated as Series J NL.

Effective July 8, 2024, the Fund was renamed IG Mackenzie Canadian Small Cap Fund.

INTERIM MANAGEMENT REPORT OF FUND PERFORMANCE | For the Period Ended September 30, 2024

The Fund also paid the Manager an administration fee and in exchange the Manager paid the operating costs and expenses of the Fund, except for certain specified costs.

The Fund paid the Distributors a service fee as compensation for providing or arranging for the provision of services to the Fund, including the issue or allotment of securities. A portion of the service fee for Series C is rebated by the Distributors to the Fund, for distribution to Series C securityholders quarterly, as outlined in the Prospectus.

The Trustee is responsible for the overall direction of the affairs of the Fund. The Fund paid the Trustee a fee for its services.

See Fund Formation and Series Information for the annual rates paid by each series (as a percentage of average net assets) for these fees.

Securityholders in Series F also pay an advisory fee directly to the Distributors. This fee is not included in the Fund's expenses.

Past Performance

The Fund's performance information assumes all distributions made by the Fund in the periods presented are reinvested in additional securities of the relevant series of the Fund. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns or performance. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

Performance during these periods may have been impacted by the following events:

- Effective February 4, 2019, the Fund changed its investment objective and strategies to expand exposure to small and mid-cap Canadian companies and broaden investment management diversification opportunities.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar charts present the performance of each series of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Fund Formation and Series Information.

- (1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.
- (2) Management expense ratio ("MER") is based on total expenses, excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, income taxes and withholding taxes, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, except as noted. In the period a series is established, the MER is annualized from the date of inception to the end of the period. Where the Fund directly invests in securities of another fund (including exchange-traded funds or "ETFs"), the MERs presented for the Fund include the portion of MERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment. Any income distributions received from ETFs managed by affiliates of the Manager, with the intention of offsetting fees paid within those ETFs but which are not considered to be duplicative fees under regulatory requirements, are treated as waived expenses for MER purposes. The Manager may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.
- (3) The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs incurred as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period. Where the Fund invests in securities of another fund (including ETFs), the TERs presented for the Fund include the portion of TERs of the other fund(s) attributable to this investment.
- (4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.
- (5) Effective May 3, 2024, Series A was redesignated as Series B; and effective May 10, 2024, Series J DSC was redesignated as Series J NL.

Management Fees

The Fund pays a management fee, and this fee, paid by each series, is calculated as a percentage of the net asset value of the series at the close of each business day (see Fund Formation and Series Information for rates payable by each series). Generally, management fees pay the costs incurred to provide investment advisory and management services, as well as distribution-related services provided by the Distributors.

However, in the case of Series F, securityholders pay the Distributor an advisory fee (separate from the management fee) directly. Therefore, the management fee in that series is used for investment advisory and management services only.

For all other retail series (i.e. those that exclude Series R, P and S, if issued), approximately 63% of management fees paid during the period was used for investment advisory and management services, and approximately 37% related to distribution-related services. This may vary by series.
